DUNN'S PATENT COTTON TIE.

We beg to announce that we have been appointed Sole Agents for the sale of the above Patent Tie in Virginia and North Carolina. The satisfaction it gave last season wherever used, warrants us in recommending it as the best he yet introduced. It combines the advantages of great strength, great simplicity and ease in manipulation; besides the difficulty of taking up the slack of the band in the operation of baling, is entirely obviated.

We shall have our supply direct from the manufacturer in England, for delivery in July or August, and at lowest market rates.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!
AT Greech's.

I MAKE MY BOW AGAIN TO MY NUMEROUS friends and patrons, with a house full of goods and still they come.

Why, just look, the streets filled with drays all loaded with new Goods

FOR CREECH'S.

Just received, 33 CASES OF DRY GOODS, containing a large and varied assortment; and when you talk about Dress Goods, and what you think of new styles and speak of Goods at the right prices, why, bear in mind that they are here and now opened at Creech's. COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

CALICOES, CALICOES.

I will sell you Calicoes at 8 cts a per yard; wont you look at them at 10 cents? and cant you afford to buy them at 12½c.

Goods for Men's and Boy's Wear.

Don't you know that I keep the best assortment in the City? You that do not know it, come and look at them and to you that do know, come right along and buy what you want. I have got some for the boy's, plenty for the youths. A fine supply for the young men and enough to keep the old gentlemen warm, so why not spend a few moments at Creech's and satisfy yourselves!

There the remote Bermudas ride
In the Ocean's bosom unespied;
From a small boat that rowed a-long
The listning winds received the song.
COME TO CREECH'S.

Cloaks and Shawls, Cloaks and Shawls.

Did I say Cloaks and Shawls? That is just what I mean. Why I will sell them to you for $2.00! Do you want them cheaper? same quality. Cant find them! Do you want them finer? I am just the man that has them. 8, 7, 8, 10, 12, 15, 18, 20 and 30 dollars; do you want them finer still? Just say so, and I am the man to order them.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

Just received 100 Cases for Ladies, Misses, Boys and Children; so just put that naked foot into a boot or shoe, for it will soon be cold weather, and my friend, I see your boots are wearing out, and your shoes have a hole in them, so you had just as well come to Creech's and buy a new pair. They look better and fit better, any way; they keep your feet dry and preserve your health.

Hats, Hats, Hats.

Ladies' and Misses' trimmed and untrimmed Bonnets; Would you not do well to spare a few moments and come and look at them?

I beg leave to return my sincere thanks for the patronage I have received for the last 20 years at your hands, and I hope, by strict attention to business, representing goods as they are and in every instance giving you the worth of your money, to continue to share a liberal portion of your patronage.

CONGRESSIONAL CANVASS.

John Manning, Jr., Esq., the Conservative candidate for Congress, Hon. Sion H. Rogers, Hon. A. S. Merrimon and other distinguished Speakers, will address the voters of the 4th Congressional District at the following times and places:

Smithfield	Nov. 19
Nashville, Nash county	" 21
Durham's, Orange county	" 23
Brassfields, Granville county	" 25

UP AND BE DOING.

The Radicals will leave no stone unturned to snatch from us the victory won by the Conservatives of this Congressional district in August last. This they cannot do if the Conservatives do not willfully permit it by apathy and neglect.

To prevent defeat on this account, we suggest that the Committees appointed by Judge Fowle and Capt. Davis, in last summer's campaign, in Wake and Franklin, reorganize at once and bring out a full vote in each Township.

In the other counties of the district we advise our friends to appoint, at once, from five to ten active men in each township whose duty it will be to see that our full strength is polled.

These things ought to be attended to at once, and we urge our friends throughout the district to take the work in hand and perform it.

VIGOROUS OPENING OF THE CAMPAIGN.

"My son Joe" opened the Congressional campaign, at Warrenton, on Saturday last. There were quite a large number of people, both white and colored, at Warrenton Depot, when Joseph arrived; we happened to be on the train and looked out for some demonstration in way of reception to "my son," but we saw only one man, a 15th amendment, approach and speak with the Radical standard-bearer; he seemed to have been the "committee of one" sent out to escort him to town, as they both took a seat in a buggy and unceremoniously and quietly took the road towards Warrenton. Not another man, white or black, gave any sign of a knowledge of his presence, and nobody cried "God bless him."

A colored man said to us not very long since, "If the colored people approve of Gov. Holden's arresting white men and imprisoning them, we may have another Governor, some time, who will arrest and imprison colored men in the same way."—We thought, and still think, this was putting the matter in a sensible light, and one in which the colored people would understand it. If Joseph receives anything like the vote given to James Harris in the last election, we shall be greatly deceived, and shall at once conclude that the negroes are poor judges of worth and merit.

The Governor said, at the market, a few days since, that "Joseph would be elected without doubt or difficulty." Now mark our prediction. The white Rads will find that their refusal to vote for the black man, Harris, will be properly met on the part of many colored Rads, who will refuse to vote for the white candidate, Joseph.

What reason can the white Radicals give for not voting for the colored candidate, Harris? Intellectually James Harris is certainly Joe's superior, and in a moral point of view there is no comparison between them. Joseph can hardly be considered a fit exponent of the principles and views of any man in the district, save those of Kirk and "Dad." If there be a white man in the district, except Joe and Kirk, who endorses "Dad," we should like to hear him named. Perhaps the Standard can enlighten us.

CARPET BAG PHILOSOPHY.

Some people seem to believe, and to act on the belief, that "a lie well stuck to, is as good as the truth." This appears especially to be the philosophy or the religion of the invisible editor of the Standard, as exemplified on various occasions and on several subjects; for it is impossible for any man to be afflicted with such a hallucination of mind as to really believe what that invisible individual so often asserts, and keep out of the Insane Asylum.

For instance: In Saturday's issue of the Standard, it is asserted that the Conservative candidate for Congress, Mr. Manning, is in favor of abolishing the homestead provision of the Constitution, which assertion is of itself an utter falsehood. But this direct charge against Mr. Manning is but an indirect repetition of the same charge against the Conservative party of the State, which has been made and repeated in the columns of that paper a dozen times in the last month or two. We have denied the charge and challenged the infallible editor to produce proof of his assertion, instead of doing which he repeats the assertion, acting on the principle of his philosophy, as alluded to above, that "a lie well stuck to, is as good as the truth."

Take another instance: For the last three days the Standard has been spluttering and frothed crowing over the Republican victories achieved in the elections which came off on Monday and Tuesday of last week, while, at the same time, the writer of those jubilant editorials knew, if he knew anything, that there were Democratic gains in almost every State that voted. In Saturday's issue we find another variation of "the victory" in which the writer says, "the magnitude of the victory just achieved by the Republican party can only be appreciated by an examination of details." No doubt! We opine they would always prefer such magnitudinous victories in broken doses.

Now, in the very paper in which this victory of gigantic magnitude is given in "details," appears a telegraphic dispatch making the details more specific; namely, a "Republican" victory of two Democratic gain in Alabama, one in Arkansas, one in Florida, three in Illinois, one in Indiana, two in Louisiana, five in New York, one in Michigan, four in Missouri, three, (actually four) in North Carolina, five in Pennsylvania, six in Tennessee, two in West Virginia, and one in Wisconsin, while the Democrats have lost four, all told—one in New Jersey, two in South Carolina and one in Virginia: a nett Democratic gain of thirty three!

That is the Standard's "victory!" But he said the horse was seventeen feet high and now he is ready to swear to it, for "a lie well stuck to, is as good as the truth," and truly his party needs something to comfort them, and therefore he sticks to that magnitudinous victory even with contradiction staring him in the face. May the Rads continue to enjoy such victories!

THE COST OF IT.—The Standard says, a convention would cost the people of North Carolina two hundred thousand dollars.—It an article on the same subject in our yesterday's issue, which was written and in type before we saw the article in the Standard, we made what we think a reasonable calculation, showing that a convention would not cost over twenty-five thousand dollars, which amount would be saved to the people in one year, by cutting off superfluous judicial hangers on, fastened on the people by the present Radical Constitution.

We and the standard have our estimates from two different and distinct bases. It estimates the cost on a Radical basis, and we wonder he put it as low as two hundred thousand; we estimate from a Conservative basis, and think we have a little overrated the cost at twenty five thousand. There is all the difference in the world in the art of money spending, and in this art we are prompt to admit Radical superiority; indeed the history of the last two or three years in this State establishes their claims, in this respect, too firmly to be questioned.

We are still of the opinion, notwithstanding the Standard's estimate, made as it is from a Radical standpoint, that the Conservative party can hold a convention at much less cost than two hundred thousand dollars, and that by so doing they will cut off enough useless Radical extravagance to re-imburse whatever the expense may be, and that in a very short time.

CANDIDATE IN HERTFORD.

We have received the proceedings of a meeting held in Hertford county on the 7th inst., to nominate a candidate for the House of Representatives in the place of Mr. T. R. Jernigan, Esq., resigned. We had already announced the result of the meeting, in the nomination of W. P. Shaw, Esq.

There seems to have been an effort at the beginning of the meeting to compromise on a candidate, but the committee appointed for that purpose could not agree, and then the Conservatives appointed a committee of their own, who recommended Mr. Shaw, as above, whose nomination was unanimously endorsed. Mr. Shaw accepted the nomination and entered upon the canvass.

We found the following in the "copy box," on our return from Weldon, selected by Rev. Mr. Pell, as "miscellaneous" copy to be used as occasion required. It will be read with the more interest on that account, by many of his friends, who will understand how appropriate the beautiful ideas contained in the selection were to his own views on the subject of the extract:

"I WOULD NOT LIVE ALWAY."—The wise man has said that "the day of a man's death is better than his birth," and viewing the subject from many of the stand points of life, we are readily inclined to endorse the opinion. The longer we live, the more we feel disposed to regard death as a wise provision of the Almighty to terminate an existence which otherwise, in many instances would become intolerable. Could we stand within the radius of perpetual youth, surrounded by the sunshine of health, hope and happiness; could we bask in the smiles of genial friendship, unmarred by treachery or deceit; could we claim exemption from death for ourselves and friends, as well as from wasting disease and corroding care; could we forever roam amid the amaranthine bowers of hope and love, and pluck from each pathway the charming flowers of spring time; were there no storms of distress and trouble to raise the waves of tumult and strife, in short, were this earth in truth an unchanging paradise, then, indeed, there might appear some semblance of wisdom in the eternal clamor and pertinacity with which men cling to life, so called. But when we pause to contemplate the fact that to each individual existence there must necessarily be many dark days, and in many of them a predominance of evil, we are prepared to come easiest to comprehend the meaning of the inspired penman, who had certainly possessed every facility to place the proper estimate upon life and its pleasures. The Christian, especially, who has passed the meridian of life and begins to descend the western slopes toward the setting sun, begins to realize, if he has not done so earlier in the unsubstantial nature of all earthly good. The high hopes that flushed his early manhood have successively vanished. Riches and honor have taken wings and flown away. The phantoms of fame and ambition have exploded like a bubble upon the deep. The friends of his youth have passed away like a dream of childhood.—The plastic step and manly vigor which once enabled him to bid defiance to ordinary obstacles, have been succeeded by the unsteady gait and wasting constitution.—Life has become completely transformed in all its aspects, and he no longer looks to himself or his surroundings for the sources of happiness, but to that great undefinable hereafter, which is hidden behind the golden western gates. If there be the consciousness of a well spent youth, life's autumnal radiance increases at each successive step. The rivers of his peace begin to widen and deepen as they quietly flow on to the ocean of eternity. He perceptibly realizes the splendors of those footsteps of Jesus, which shine brighter and brighter unto the perfect day, until he is finally swallowed up in the glorious effulgence of the City of God.

"ENGROSSING CLERK"—DR. PAGE.

MR. EDITOR:—Permit me to call the attention of the members of the Legislature to the claims of this gentleman upon the party. Dr. P. is an elegant scribe and a man of fine business attainments.

Last spring his house and furniture, in the county of Chatham, was destroyed by fire. This property was the most valuable, of the kind, in the county, and his all. In addition to this, his family afflictions have been very severe, and of a peculiar nature. He is a consistent Conservative, and has "done the State some service and they know it." He has strong claims upon the party.

CHATHAM.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—Please allow one more name to be added to the list of eminent persons who have been spoken of in connection with the United States Senatorship, for it would seem that he is equally fit, and taking everything into consideration, perhaps more so, than any who has yet been mentioned or can be in the State.

I allude to him who is known as "the father of North Carolina law." Though he has taken no part in party meetings, Conventions, &c., he is, as the great Guy was, strictly Conservative. The object at which he has aimed, has ever been the same as the great principles of the Conservative party, which are the protection of liberty, the salvation of the Constitution and the perpetuity of the Union. His devotion to the Union is equal to that of Webster's or Jackson's. No man's love of constitutional liberty can surpass his—having devoted his life to constitutional law, not long since, though he has now reached the age of near three score and ten, he was seen standing with uplifted hands appealing to the degenerate Pearson and his Associates, to sustain the law and save the people of North Carolina from the tyranny of a despotic Governor. In consistency in virtue there are none more virtuous, for he has been like the sun in the heavens, the one always giving light, the other never forsaking the path of liberty.—His devotion to constitutional liberty, his everlasting love for the Union of our fathers, and his ability will, perhaps, make him more respected, and enable him to wield a greater influence in the Senate than any other man in North Carolina.

WAKE.

(From the London Weekly Dispatch.)

GEN. ROBERT E. LEE.

By a telegram received from New York we learn that on Thursday last the greatest soldier, and one of the most single minded citizens, ever produced by the United States of America, died at Lexington, of congestion of the brain, Robert Lee, who was the commander in-chief of the Confederate army during the great war of secession, and who led the sunny forces of his native State and her allies so long and so successfully against the countless hosts of the North, only to yield at last to the dead weight of overwhelming numbers, was one of those men of whom friends and foes may alike be proud. Single minded and unselfish, simple in his habits, chivalric in all his feelings, ardently patriotic, he was a splendid type of the Anglo Saxon gentleman.—Not yet, perhaps, will the bitter feelings of the war have sufficiently passed away to enable his countrymen of Pennsylvania, of Massachusetts, to appreciate him at his true worth, but the day will come when the men of the transatlantic Republic will recall his name with as much pride as we do those of Hampden and of Falkland, without inquiring whether they fought for King or for Parliament. Even now it will soften the memory of his fame if they recall that in declaring against the Federal Government after having held a commission in its army he only followed the example of George Washington, the friend and fellow-soldier of his grand father, who in the same way disowned his allegience to King George when he believed that his duty to his native land required the sacrifice.

THE NEGRO AN ELEMENT OF WEAKNESS. The Baltimore American (Radical) discusses the state of things in Maryland as follows:

"The [Radical] party is in a minority in every county in the State, along excepting Anne Arundel. The prejudice which is entertained against the voting of the colored people contributed more to our defeat than all other causes combined. The negro has proven to be an element of weakness, and not of strength."

New Paper in Raleigh.—We have received a prospectus for a new paper to be published in Raleigh to be issued weekly, and called "The Gazette," Mr. Albert H. Dowell, Jr., Publisher. It is to be "a reflector of the sentiments of the National Republican party, and a firm supporter of the wise and economical administration of President Grant." Whether it will be a "firm supporter" of the present State administration; a co operator with the Standard or an antagonist to that carpet-bag institution, the prospectus does not say. The terms of subscription are $2.50 a year, or $2.00 to clubs of ten.

Mayor's Court.—The Mayor's levee yesterday morning was but slimly attended, only three or four insignificant cases being entered on the record:

L. Sanford, charged with making an assault upon one Miss Polly Felps and threatening her life. After hearing evidence in the case, his Honor discharged Sanford upon a solemn promise of better behavior in the future.

John Bailey, colored, and others of the same hue, charged with engaging in an affray on Sunday morning about light, were next interviewed, but evidence being lacking they were also discharged with a warning.

Personal.—The Western Republican in animadverting on some notice the Newbern Times has been taking of him, prints a full length picture of the editor of the Times right in the middle of a column. We should call this rather personal, although intended, perhaps, to be complimentary.

P. S. We omitted to state above, that the picture alluded to, has four legs and a pair of extremely long ears.

Amy Miller, a colored woman, aged 96 years, was found dead near the poor house of Iredell county, last Thursday. So we learn from the Statesman.

From the same paper we learn that work has been commenced on the A. T. & Ohio Railroad, at Charlotte and Statesville, and will be pushed vigorously, till completed.

We clip the following paragraph from the Local column of the Boston Post of the 10th inst. Tim seems to be having a good time on his wedding tour and enjoying to the full the festivities of the honeymoon. We learn that he and his bride are expected to return to Raleigh this week, to enter upon the sober realities of married life:

A Pleasant Affair.—A serenade was given to Capt. T. F. Lee (Sheriff, of Wake county, N. C.) at the residence of his brother, Daniel Lee, 89 Kendall st., last evening, which was one of the most pleasant affairs of the kind which has occurred in this city of late. The Captain has been a resident of North Carolina for six years, and was lately married to one of the fair daughters of the South; a this inducement, in addition to his very flattering business prospects, will doubtless determine him to make Raleigh his permanent home. We are sure that in all his wedding tour he can meet with no more heartfelt wishes for the happiness of himself and his accomplished wife, than were given him by his old comrades and friends in Boston. The music was given by the Ninth Regiment Band, and by the Glee Club of Post 11, which were both pleasing and delightful.

Owl-n.—John K. Shearin, Jr., of Six Pound Township, killed an owl on Monday night, measuring thirteen feet from tip to tip.—Warrenton Gazette.

Mr. Shearin must have shot that owl with a scatter gun, and measured the "tips" in their scattered condition.

A New Advertising Dodge.—Every time a lady who uses fragrant Sozodont opens her mouth she advertises the article. The state of her teeth is a certificate of its excellence. No spot darkens their surface, no impurity clings to them, the cushions in which they are set are rosy, and the breath that swells through them is sweet as the breeze of June.

Genteel Political Phrases.—A Chicago paper, referring to the "Another Life Nulled" catch phrase at about election times calls it "Another flagrant fiction impaled upon the nefarious fork of race." This ought to suit the most fastidious.

The Judge of Probate of Stokes county, advertises 10,989 acres land for sale in that county for taxes. The Sheriff of Ashe advertises 2,188 acres.

Funeral of Rev. Wm. E. Pell.—The funeral ceremonies of this highly esteemed citizen and much loved Christian minister was largely attended on Sunday, at 2½ o'clock, P. M.,—indeed we do not remember ever witnessing so large a crowd on a similar occasion in the city. Ladies and gentlemen of all the Christian denominations, and of all classes of society, including a large number of our colored citizens, repaired to the Church, until the body of the building, the galleries, the vestibule and the front yard were crowded, besides a large number in the street opposite the Church; many left on account of not being able to get in.

The body in charge of ten pall bearers, consisting of some of our most esteemed and prominent citizens, was placed in front of the Altar, and the services were opened by the singing a most beautiful and appropriate piece, "He is Gone," a quartet, composed and arranged by P. P. Bliss, and sung so well by the Choir of the Church as to draw tears from almost every eye present, and spread a solemnity over the entire audience.

The funeral discourse was delivered by Rev. Bennett T. Blake, from the text, "Thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ." The discourse, like the text, was well adapted to the occasion, and calculated to console and encourge at least the Christian portion of the audience.

At the conclusion of the sermon, the body was taken to the city cemetery for interment, followed by a large concourse of people, where the burial services were concluded, and the body of our much loved and deeply lamented fellow citizen was laid in its final resting place to await the sound of the last loud trump, which shall call forth his sleeping dust to put on immortality.

The bereaved family of the deceased have the warmest sympathies of the entire community in this the day of their sad affliction. But it is a comfort to them to know that the same kind and provident care manifested by him for them during his life time, was continued in the wise and timely provision he made for them after his death. We are happy to learn that his life was insured in one or more of our most reliable companies for an amount sufficient, at least, to secure them from pecuniary embarrassment.

Friend Spruill of the Warrenton Gazette was in the city week before last, and witnessed the performances of the Davenport Brothers. In his issue of last week, he speaks of the mysterious tricks of the Brothers as being unaccountable and wonderful, as they truly were; but if friend Spruill had been in Raleigh all the time for the last two years and witnessed the tricks of Holden and the "Ring," as we have, he would not have been so astonished at the "tricks and the manners" of the Davenports. Holden and the "Ring" can beat them "all to smash."

N. C. Home Fire Insurance Co.—This excellent Company, whose headquarters are in this city, we are gratified to learn, continues to do a vigorous business and is daily growing, more and more, in the public confidence. It has paid, promptly and without needless trouble to the insured, over $35,000 in losses, during the past year. On Saturday last, it paid $2,250, to W. J. Brookshire, of Montgomery county. It is a matter of just pride, and of substantial interest, as well, that we have, in our own State, so responsible and enterprising a Company. Let it be encouraged and patronized.

Baptist Convention.—After a most pleasant and harmonious session of some five or six days the body adjourned Sunday night to meet next year in Charlotte.

This Convention was we understand, the largest that ever assembled in this State, over three hundred delegates being present.

Gold Medal.—Some months ago, we we saw, at the bookstore of Mr. Alfred Williams, the gold medal awarded by the North Carolina Agricultural Society, at the annual Fair of 1869, to Mr. Fenton G. Foster, for his type setting and distributing machine. We procured a copy of the inscription on the medal, but mislaid it, and it did not turn up until a few days ago, which will account for its not having been noticed sooner.

The medal cost, we understand, over a hundred dollars, and is tastily gotten up. The following is the inscription: On the circle,

"North Carolina Agricultural Society.
Fenton G. Foster, Esq.
Liber circit et palmam qui meruit ferat."

Within the circle is the following:

"The North Carolina Agricultural Society awards to Fenton G. Foster, Esq., inventor of the TYPE SETTING and DISTRIBUTING MACHINE, this, its first Medal. October, 1869. Kemp P. Battle, Pres., Rev. J. B. Smith, D. D., Sec."

We understand that Mr. Foster is progressing finely in getting up his machines. He has made arrangements with a Company of large capitalists at the North, and that everything bids fair for an early introduction of the machine into common use.

We have never entertained a doubt of the success of the invention from the time we saw the first imperfectly constructed model in operation, and so manifest has its permanent success become to many ingenious gentlemen, that Mr. Foster has had what would appear extravagant offers for even a small interest in his enterprise.

What Does he Mean?—The Sentinel propounds a number of questions to our candidate for Congress, among which it asks, "Is he in favor of a Constitution?"

As Mr. Manning may not see the query in time to ease the pain of the querist by giving an early answer, we will "assume the responsibility" of saying that Mr. Manning is "in favor of a Constitution."

"Spalding's Glue" mends Furniture, Toys, Crockery, all ornamental work.

More New Buildings.—We left Raleigh on Tuesday of last week, and returned on Friday, to find two new buildings far on their way to completion—one of brick, on Fayetteville street, by Mr. Fraps, in front of his present Lager Beer Saloon, the other by Rev. Mr. Crowder, in Western Ward, a frame building, designed for a family Grocery to be occupied by Mr. Bell.

A New Book.—The Messrs. D. Appleton & Co. have just issued a new work of fiction, entitled "Valerie Aylmer," by a promising young authoress, Christian Ried, a native of South Carolina, we believe, whose father was killed at the battle of Bull Run.

We have not had time to give the book a consecutive reading but from glancing through, and reading a chapter here and there, we are of opinion that it is a work of decided merit of its kind, evincing genius and ability on the part of the authoress in no minor degree.

The Messrs. Appleton & Co., are known to the public as publishers of great judgment and taste, whose imprint may almost invariably be taken as a guarantee of the merits of the publications. The work, under their auspices, connected with the fact that the authoress is a daughter of the "sunny South," will, no doubt, find extensive sale.

Tours, Nov. 14.—The Journal official charges that the Prussians pillaged Villa Neuf on account of its stubborn resistance. Bismarck denies having negotiated with Eugenie.

FOREIGN.

London, Nov. 14.—The situation of the Prussian army is such that it requires additional reinforcements from Versailles.

Woodhouse, the secretary of the English Embassy, has arrived with a batch of Englishmen allowed to leave Paris by the Germans. They report the stock of provisions in Paris to be short and weather cold, with frequent snow.

Moltke has issued stringent orders regarding the bearers of the Geneva Cross, whose safeguard is guaranteed by all the great Powers.

The opposition of German liberal papers to the convocation of the federal parliament at Versailles, is based upon the ground that members would scarcely consent to go thither where they would be compelled to legislate, under the pressure of military influence.

Brussels, Nov. 14.—Correspondents write hence that information has been received that Paris cannot hold out longer than three weeks. The Prussians, therefore, will trust to hunger to compel a surrender. No bombardment will occur.

Much snow has fallen in Northeastern France. The Prussians have captured the towns of Issoire Dombe and Clerdon in the Department of Puibs. The Mobiles retreated southward. The French troops have disappeared from that section.

One of the tunnels on the Strasburg Railway has fallen in, hopelessly interrupting communication by that line.

Tours, Nov. 14.—Advices from Lyons show the Prussians to be advancing steadily in the East. Dijon has been occupied. Garibaldi and the French General at Chagny will unite their armies to check the Prussian advance.

The fortification of Lyons continues. The height about the town have been greatly strengthened.

Dispatches from Lille announce the Prussians near Lafer.

An engagement occurred on Saturday near Evleux. The Prussians were driven with loss.

A balloon is expected to-day at Tours, whither the army of the Loire has advanced.

Havana, Nov. 14.—On Monday last the Prussian War steamer "Meteor," 8 guns and the French steamer "Bouvet" — guns entered this harbor. The "Meteor" sailed again after the French mail steamer "Nouveau Monde."—The "Nouveau Monde" returned bearing dispatches.

On Tuesday the "Bouvet" sailed and waited outside for the "Meteor." The "Meteor" followed after the legal time. The Spanish steamer "Hernando Cortes" sailed to observe. The "Meteor" had sixty and the "Bouvet" 80 men. The "Bouvet" opened with five shots which the "Meteor" returned. The "Bouvet" then attempted to board the "Meteor," but failed, and her rigging became entangled, carrying away the main and mizzen masts. The falling masts became entangled with the "Meteor's" screws and at the same moment the "Meteor" sent a shell into the "Bouvet," exploding her steam pipe. The Meteor became unmanageable from her entangled screw and the "Bouvet" finding herself disengaged, sailed for port. The "Meteor" followed, but a fair wind enabled the "Bouvet" to reach Cuban water, when the "Hernando Cortes" fired a gun as a signal that the combat had closed. Both fought bravely, but the victory was accorded to the "Meteor." Both are in port repairing damages. The "Meteor" had 3 killed and 1 wounded; the "Bouvet" had 5 wounded.

In the late encouraging result of the election, let it not be forgotten that great praise is due to the National Democratic Resident Committee at Washington, of which our able fellow citizen, the Hon. Samuel J. Randall, is chairman. Its campaign documents were well chosen and vigorously circulated. They were, most of them, high, statesmanlike discussions of public questions from the speeches of the ablest men in the country. Such were the weapons—be weapons of reason—with which the Democracy have opposed the bayonet, and beaten it.—Phil. exp.

P. F. PESCUD, JR.,

RALEIGH, N. C.

SUCCEEDS HIS FATHER IN THE AGENCY OF THE

NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE CO., U. S. A.

For the Central and Northern Counties in NORTH CAROLINA.

The NATIONAL, under the management of his father, P. F. Pescud, Sr., secured very many warm friends who obtained policies for large amounts, and the fact that it has issued upwards of

10,000 POLICIES,

and nearly doubled its immense Capital of $1,000,000 in about two years, speaks more for its wonderful popularity than any language at my command. The rates being based on the Stock Plan, and when contrasted with Mutual Cash rates, are so much lower, that a certain and handsome dividend is secured from the date of the Policy.

I will be gratified to take applications from my friends and all wishing Policies, and shall want many active and reliable Agents, in the fields assigned me.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Alsop & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 180,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint. It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete,—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet; Size Bale 4½ feet x36x28 inches; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully, JAS. R. WILDER.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 18th, 1870.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in proconcing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

LIFE INSURANCE AS AN INVESTMENT.

THE Widows & Orphans

BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF NEW YORK.

Cash Assets over $1,500,000,

ISSUES ALL FORMS OF NON-FORFEITABLE WHOLE LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES on the Mutual Cash Plan, declaring Dividends annually after the first annual premium paid. Assets exclusively Cash with no portion of its reserve fund in premium notes, consequently its "reserve" is stronger than that of any Company doing business in this State. No "definite sum to render values guaranteed" as an inducement to new business, but reference is made to the average amount, paid on each surrendered policy as shown by New York Insurance Reports, 1869 in evidence of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a minimum "Definite Cash Surrender Value." Death losses have not occurred, out of several hundred policy-holders in this State, which fact must establish the better ability of the Company, to pay larger dividends than Companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. "Fictitious Dividends are not declared, but Dividends are given from the actual surplus in accordance with the Company's Charter. The attention of the public is invited to the following comparison of cost, demonstrating the advantages over ordinary insurances, of the

TONTINE DIVIDEND PLAN:

Ordinary Life Policy Tontine Dividend Plan. Age 38, amount $10,000. 10 years in force. Annual Premium $291 50.	Ordinary Life Policy Mutual plan Cash Co. POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.
